

Face-Off Reader's Guide

For more information on the book, visit <http://stacyjuba.com/blog/face-off/>

1. Who did you like better, Brad or T.J.? Why?
2. Why do you think the twins became so competitive with one another over the years?
3. What did you think of the boys' father? Did he treat Brad and T.J. fairly? Why or why not?
4. Jessica tries to convince Brad that he and T.J. have a lot in common. In what ways are Brad and T.J. alike? In what ways are they different?
5. Despite their feelings for one another, Brad and T.J. stick up for each other to Glen McCann. Why do you think they defend each other to Glen?
6. Do you have siblings? How is your relationship with your siblings similar or different from the interactions between the four McKendrick brothers?
7. The twins' parents are on the verge of separating and their younger brother Chris is acting out during the book. What effect do Brad and T.J.'s family troubles have on their relationship with one another?
8. What message did this book have about sportsmanship?
9. Have you ever played on a team or participated in an activity where not everyone was working together? How did that make you feel?
